

SUPPORTING INSCOM'S MISSION WITH ITES-4H SOLUTIONS

INSCOM MISSION

The U.S. Army Intelligence and Security Command (INSCOM) delivers multi-discipline intelligence—signals, human, geospatial, and cyber—to support commanders and national decision-makers. Its mission enables situational awareness, decision superiority, and protection against evolving threats worldwide.

HOW COPPER RIVER SUPPORTS INSCOM

Through the ITES-4H contract, Copper River Technologies delivers secure, scalable IT solutions tailored to INSCOM's mission requirements.

CORE CAPABILITIES:

SECURE CLOUD ARCHITECTURE & CYBERSECURITY

Encrypted, resilient environments for sensitive intelligence operations.

IAAS, PAAS & SAAS

Scalable platforms for real-time analysis, communications, and mission applications.

NETWORK ENGINEERING & DATA CENTER MODERNIZATION

High-performance infrastructure to support critical operations.

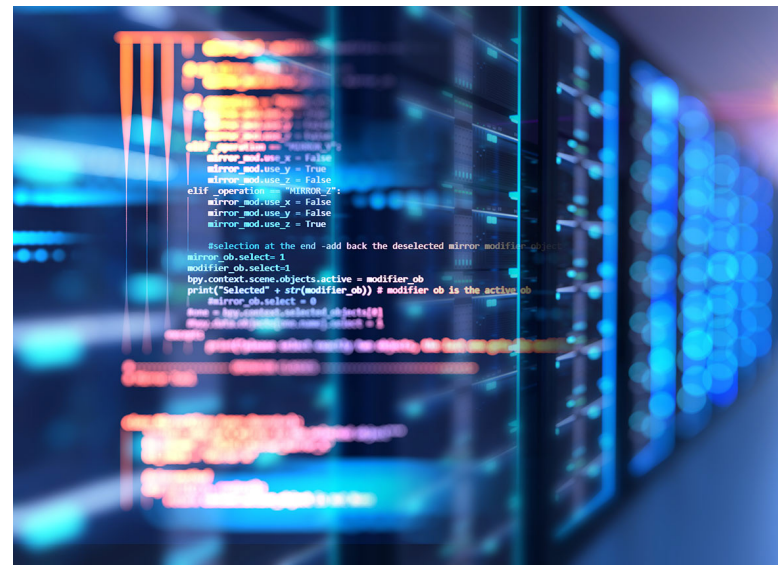

IT AUTOMATION & MONITORING

Streamlined provisioning, patch management, and oversight for faster response and reduced risk.
